BAKE SHOPPE & BISTRO

"I am that Bread of Life" ...John 6:48

We bring you wonderful taste as well as the feeling of home, of times gone by, of good quality, of healthy food and warm hearts.

May 2011

We welcome our guests to take advantage of our Handicap Entrance and Beautiful Deck Area which is located at the rear of the building just off the I.O.O.F. Park

"God's Spirit, who is in you, is greater than the devil, who is in the world.

....1 John 4:4

It's not my department! We all do lots of different things in the Bake Shoppe, we have had to learn to be very flexible, as we work our way through each day. When Connie is mixing up a batch of cinnamon rolls, we may all help, and often will offer assistance to each other by a quick, "Can I Help?" as we walk to and fro in the kitchen. I have been known to be just a bit forgetful and tend to forget my task as I stop to offer assistance to someone else. The girls will often have to lovingly remind me to "Get back to my department"! You see, I have forgotten what my role is. In an effort to multi task, I am again doing several things poorly rather than one thing well. As Christians, we see the needs all around us. Sometimes we are so busy with the immediate crisis that we forget our role in this world. In the Bake Shoppe we share so much with each other, and as our circle grows, the concerns for each other can sometimes almost be crushing. We have learned to transform our worries and concerns into prayer. If any of us forget and stop by to offer assistance to our Almighty and Loving God, someone will remind us that, "It is not our department!

"Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?"...Matt 8:26.

What a stinging pain must have shot through the disciples as they surely thought to themselves, "We missed the mark again!" And what a sharp pain will go through us when we suddenly realize we could have produced complete and utter joy in the heart of Jesus by remaining absolutely confident in Him, in spite of what we are facing. Max Lucado puts it like this, "Sit tight....and let God do His thing." Even when Satan appears to win, he loses. Our trials and disappointments may seem like the end of the world, but God is using those persecutions for His purposes.... sometimes for you... sometimes for others... with a crown of Life as His goal. It is His Department!!!

There she goes again....

I was told that it was high time that we featured our latest addition to the "Our Daily Bread" family. We were first introduced to Pam as a customer of ours and then in August of 2010 she came to work with us. She loves our food, and is a delight to work with. Although she is new to Our Daily Bread, she has actually worked in food service for many years, in New Jersey and in Manhattan, and then in Blue Rapids, Waterville area. This particular day she was making off with one of Connie's Lemon Pies (working here does have its rewards.) If you have had the chance to have Pam wait on you, her sense of humor has not escaped you. She is just one of the many wonderful surprises that God has brought to us on this journey of opening a Bake Shoppe...in the middle of everywhere!

I returned to Pennsylvania on Saturday from a week of spring gobbler hunting in Kansas. We stopped at your café on Thursday afternoon and really enjoyed our lunch, the desserts and your hospitality. We were staying at the Rack and Feather Lodge owned by Raleigh and Haely Ordoyne. Also, I am working with MRA which is utilizing your food service in the fall for our hunting trips. Your service and product were excellent. I will order online and visit your café when I return this fall.

Glenn Gaul, Catawissa, PA

Yes Glenn...I got your order for cookies and mixed berry pie...look forward to seeing you in the Fall!!!
