The Ladies of
 "Our Daily Bread" & Sweeney

November/December 2006

We bring you wonderful taste as well as the feeling of home, of times gone by, of good quality, of healthy food and warm hearts.

The work of the righteousness shall be peace and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever...
 Isaiah 32:17

Carmen georgescu Coghill .

The (scu) means it is a pure Romanian name. She was born in Romania and on the 25th of August took her oath of Citizenship in Kansas City with 91 other people from 39 other countries. She came here 4 years ago in 1999 when she came here to visit friends and she met her husband. He later proposed to her after she returned to Romania. She applied to immigration for a fiancé visa and they were married. Carmen is just one of the beautiful people that I have come to know because of my trips to KU Med Center. By nature I love the quiet solace of the hills and if I had my way, I would live in a little log cabin tucked away in the beauty of nature. Anyone who knows me realizes that my life is not at all like that. It seems that our lives take twists and turns and we wonder how we have gotten from there to here. One of my favorite verses is the prayer of the father who asked Jesus, "Lord, I do believe, help thou my unbelief". The beauty of God's Kingdom is in growth, strength to strength, glory to glory, there can be no stagnation. No mis-spent time over failures and shortcomings. We count the lessons learned like rungs on a ladder. Our lives are fashioned of joy and sorrow, of failure and success, of wounds and healing balm. The Sculptor is shaping into perfection these lives of ours. I believe that He has the greater vision as He molds and shapes me, even though sometimes I resist the pain or the change that it brings. I am certainly glad that I met Carmen. She has taught me so much. She misses her family in Romania, but loves her new country. She reminds me of the verse in John 21:18 "When you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go where-ever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out you hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go."

As He engineers my circumstances.....I will not be faint...for He also gives me belief in something I cannot yet see. Have a beautiful and blessed Holiday season...wherever it finds you!

.....Blessings! Cindy+

*Join us for our October Special Event...
 This is our Final Event for the 2006 Year.
 We will resume our Special Event Dinners in January 2007.*

We Will Be Closed on Thursday Evenings for the Holidays.

During the busy Holiday Season we have the pleasure to host many "Special Christmas Parties" for our Guests. We will be closed to the public on Thursday nights during the months of November and December. Have a wonderful Holiday Season!

Focus on.....

Our Cookie Trays.....

The Holiday Season is fast approaching and you know what that means....

...Cookies. We have cookies every day at "Our Daily Bread" We make them fresh..with no preservatives, and use real butter. You can taste the difference, and your guests will too.

One of the favorites is our decorated seasonal cookies. We start with a sugar cookie recipe that has been passed down to us from our Great Grandmother. We cut them into shapes and after baking we coat the cookie with almond bark to seal in the freshness & give it special sweetness. Then we get creative. Sometimes it is a barn or a cow, or more recently Adena made over 500 decorated cookies for a wedding favors. You can view our cookies and other gourmet selection on the web at www.Our-DailyBread.com We have several sizes of Cookie Trays and Gift Boxes available for the Holidays. Call ahead and let us prepare one for you and your special guests.
