August 2010

"He came to a broom tree, sat down under it and prayed that he might die. "I have had enough, Lord", he said "Take my life".

Some call it Dog Days... this time of the summer, that brings the heat, humidity and, dare I admit, a problem with my attitude. I have found myself running on empty, after the rapid start to the Spring, then helping with youth camp, bible school, and watching the grandkids while Kate & her husband took youth to New Orleans for a youth gathering. By the way, I should note: these are all things I love to do...however, I tend to anticipate all the promises that the summer brings and then...I hit the first of August...and wonder "What is wrong with me?" Some people would say, "I'm just DONE!"

The prophet Elijah knew all about...being DONE! He complained to God that the Isrealites had rejected His covenant, broken down His altars, and put His prophets to the sword! "I am the only one left", he said, "and now they are trying to kill me too." I can hear it in Elijah's voice, can't you...his attitude toward those he is there to serve it suffering.

What I find interesting is the next verse in Kings 19:11. "Lord said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rock before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. After the Earthquake came a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper. When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave.

I guess at this point...the Lord had his attention. The still small voice is quite often hard to hear when we are so busy with all of the loud, demanding, and often self-made circumstances of our lives.

Perhaps the DONE attitude finds us and gets our attention, when we most need to rest...and listen. I have been guilty before of making demands of another, that they fill this void inside of me, this emptiness that exhaustion can bring. It was not fair of me to do...for that void can only be filled by my God and Lord. Oh, by the way, the Lord's voice and His instructions were only heard after and angel came to Elijah two different times, encouraging him to rest and be strengthened physically.

I won't argue with His wisdom.
