"I am that Bread of Life" ...John 6:48

September 2010

We bring you wonderful taste as well as the feeling of home, of times gone by, of good quality, of healthy food and warm hearts.

We welcome our guests to take advantage of our Handicap Entrance and Beautiful Deck Area which is located at the rear of the building just off the I.O.O.F. Park

*"Come to me, all you who are weary ...
 Matt 11:28*

It is that feeling that tends to wash over me when I am feeling so inadequate. It is hard to explain...but easy to identify. It is a self-examination which produces a sense of struggle and turmoil in me. It can be produced by nervous emotions or sometimes by being dropped into a whole new set of circumstances. Marilyn calls it...having your ducks scattered. For those of us who find some comfort in the illusion that those ducks ever were somewhat in a row...this self-awareness that disturbs our calm waters can be frightening. I believe...anything that disturbs my rest in Him...can be rectified. Not by ignoring it..but only by coming to Him. Friends may be of comfort in the, inevitable circumstances of my life, but they are no substitute for what my heart is craving. His presence in the "Come to me..." is a calmness in the middle of the storm. It allows me to almost enjoy the ducks being scattered about in a reckless fashion. "Come to me..." The intellectual, moral, and spiritual depth of our reality as a person is tested and measured by these words.

Each month as I write this newsletter I am reminded of how inadequate I am to even begin to speak His words.. let alone to give advise to others. I will simply have to point the way to the place where I go. In every detail of my life...I have a choice to dispute the findings of how short I fall, or simply "Come to Jesus" That choice is yours as well.... Perhaps His glory is displayed best, when we remain calm and confident in Him in the middle of the flurry of feathers!!!

....blessings.....cindy+

IF THE ROOTS ARE DEEP AND STRONG THE TREE NEEDN'T WORRY ABOUT THE WIND.

...blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord...He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit. Jeremiah 17:7,8
