BAKE SHOPPE & BISTRO

"I am that Bread of Life" ...John 6:48

April 2009

We bring you wonderful taste as well as the feeling of home, of times gone by, of good quality, of healthy food and warm hearts.

We welcome our guests to take advantage of our Handicap Entrance and Beautiful Deck Area which is located at the rear of the building just off the I.O.O.F. Park

But the people grew impatient on the way; they spoke against God and against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!" Numbers 21:4-5

I continually have a problem with patience, or should I say, my lack of patience. Some of the Spring flowers like these Crocus are poking their heads through the bare ground this week. They are the first of the spys to check out the safety of Spring's full bloom. We enjoyed a warm 70 degree day last Saturday, only to be chastised by cooler weather and a hint of snow flurries. The biblical book of "Numbers" was originally titled "In the Desert". It is the account of the multiple cycles that the Isrealites went through as they wandered thorough the desert those 40 years. They often became impatient too, losing faith in the fact that their God had a plan! They just wanted some closure...they wanted the trials to be over, tired of the lessons...of the winter...they just wanted it to be Spring! The book of Numbers shows the early symptoms, full progression, and tragic end of impatience, grumbling and unbelief. A march through the desert that would have taken about two weeks took almost 40 years. Could it have been the lesson was too hard, or that the pupil was set in their ways. I remember becoming increasingly concerned with attitude of the next generation, when my children were in school. They were living in a reality of plenty that I never knew as a child...but, I would tell myself...I had that same reality too. Wasn't I enjoying the time of plenty.....or was I just wanting more. Our nation and world are going through a lot of changes....our desert of sorts! I believe He has a plan...and during this time of waiting ...I will pray for our nation, leaders, and world. And I will wait on His time as He changes us through the circumstance of our lives. I will battle the urge to be impatient or to grumble with an attitude of Thankfulness.

Enie put on a Pork Roast last night before we went to bed. It cooked all night long in the Crock Pot, pretty soon I will layer it with carrots, potatoes, and onions...Is your mouth watering? Patience.... Let it simmer...It will be done at 12 noon!

..... Blessings! Cindy+

More...Signs of Spring...“

One of the Joys of the Springtime are the baby calves. On this particular day, they were basking in the warmth of the Sun...and one was even having breakfast! Soon the grass will be green in the pastures and they will be enjoying the summer, like the rest of us!

Our Daily Bread is a Bake Shoppe, which also serves lunch. Our fresh baked goods, pies and entrees are served daily but are also available for your family. Because they are made fresh for you – order ahead so that we can work your order into our schedule.
“The Garden Room” is available for Groups wishing to arrange an evening event by contacting our Events Coordinator, Kate Olson either by calling the Bake Shoppe at 1-866-50-BREAD or by emailing her at kolson@bluevalley.net

 While in Barnes enjoying staying at one of the several Bed & Breakfasts. You can visit Barnes on the web at www.barnesks.net.
 Or call 888-511-4569 for more info. There is also a DVD available called “Barnes, Kansas A historical Pictorial Story of a Small Town in Kansas.”

I would appreciate hearing about the latest news at Barnes, please let me know. Pat Goertzen...was at the Barnes Hatchery and taught school south of town.

Pat Goertzen, Larned, KS

Dear Pat,
 Any pictures that you would care to share would be treasured. This is the only picture that I have that shows the former Hatchery Building next to the Barnes State Bank Museum. The Hatchery was demolished in 2006. Historic pictures can be scanned and returned to the original owner, and Oh...the precious memories that can be sketched out by the owner. If not shared and written down they are lost forever!
