"I am that Bread of Life" ...John 6:48

We bring you wonderful taste as well as the feeling of home, of times gone by, of good quality, of healthy food and warm hearts.

We welcome our guests to take advantage of our Handicap Entrance and Beautiful Deck Area which is located at the rear of the building just off the I.O.O.F. Park

February 2011

*"If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
 If I make my bed in the depths, ..... you are there" .... Psalm 139:8*

February is the month of Love! Ernie (romantic fool that he is ) thinks it is just a scam dreamed up by the florists and chocolate companies to help boost the retail sales. That is OK... small business struggle with January shut down when every one tends to stay home and eat a lot of French Toast. So...welcome LOVE!

I used to give the kids in my youth group a Love Test. Along with just being a lot of fun, it helped start them think about their distorted concept of romantic love. The test, which was usually FLUNKED by all ages, helped to challenge some of the confusing ideas that lump "the real thing" with infatuation and idealized notions. The test was always followed by some lively discussion to help the participants discover the difference between distorted love, and the real thing. That journey of discovery took us to the root of the word love, which in biblical language actually has different words for different types of love.. that could be one of the problems. AGAPE love is a word normally used for God's love for man, man's love for God, and man's Christian Love for his fellow man. PHILEO love is closer to the word "Like" and means intimate friendship indicating that you enjoy the company & fellowship of the other person.

EROS Love means" Love is Blind"! It refers to physical, sexual love and is usually set by the emotions. The word itself is not in the Bible, but that does not mean that the bible is silent about sexual love. After all, God invented it. I will always remember the little lady that stood all of four foot tall approaching me after I had presented the Love talk to a group of women. "You will fall in Love with your husband many times", she said, "because, you have chosen to Love him".

In Love, we may find it better to make allowances, rather than make points.
Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. 1 Peter 4:8

So there is the secret, put in such simple words. I had been standing in an art gallery filled with words and gazing only at the carpet!

God loves me simply because He has chosen to do so! Can my love for another be like that? Can it not be blown back and forth by the winds of change, by circumstances and environmental influences. Even though my fickle emotions jump from one extreme to another, can my commitment can remain solidly anchored. I have chosen to love you, and that choice is sustained by an uncompromising will, and the anchor that never changes!
