May 2010

"This is the work of God, that ye believe on Him whom He hath sent".John 6:29

I watched the movie "Michael" today. It is one of my favorites. Ernie thinks it is a little strange, but, for me, it is one of the little things in my life that will always make me smile. It is about a rather unkempt angel, that finds himself traveling cross country from Iowa to Chicago with three tabloid reporters. Along with the wonderful scene where one reporter sings her song about how much she "Loves Pie", in general...I just love the overall message of the whole movie. As the story of these rather ordinary people unfolds, you begin to understand that there is something extraordinary developing. You get the feeling that the intended outcome is not at all what you presumed at the start. If the truth be known, I have always enjoyed a story that questions the authority of men's wisdom, and preconceived conclusions. You see...I Believe in Miracles, but I Trust in Jesus! I believe that miracles happen everyday around us. They may go unnoticed, or they may as large as the feeding of the 5,000 hungry people with hardly a bite of food. If you believe the Bible, you know that God is a miracle-working God. And God is not limited in any degree nor any respect. He is totally Sovereign. So, I can believe in miracles, but I don't put my faith in them. I put my faith and trust in the Lord Jesus Christ. The circumstances that He may choose to use may not be seen as a blessing to me at the time. Perhaps I have been guilty of overlooking the greatest of His miracles, because I was not focusing on the outcome that He intended. He has a much broader view that I can possibly imagine. Many would agree that our country is in the middle of much turmoil, whether is economic troubles or traditional values. All around me, I see young people concerned and looking for answers....that is good...the search has begun.

There are two ways to live your life.
One is as though nothing is a miracle.
The other is as though everything is a miracle....Albert Einstein

Jesus said, "I am the Bread of life; he that cometh to Me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst (John 6:35). Here is the message in the miracle. Jesus. You should seek nothing more, you should seek nothing less.

You need Jesus – not some creed, code, or cause. You don't go beyond Jesus.

You may go deeper into Jesus, but you'll never go beyond Jesus.
The table is set....Come and dine!

....and enjoy the trip with me!
Who knows...we may be in the company of angels!
