April 2008

We bring you wonderful taste as well as the feeling of home, of times gone by, of good quality, of healthy food and warm hearts.

For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. Habakkuk 2:14

I have been watching rather impatiently these days for the early signs of Spring. Someone encouraged me the other day by the crocus that had peeked through the ground in their back yard. There are buds starting to appear on the maples and the wheat fields are starting to turn green. This morning I had the opportunity to see two squirrels playing tag in the very tops of the two huge Chinese Elm trees in our yard. They didn't seem concerned at all about this rather cold delay to my favorite time of year as they preformed their acrobatic feats. I guess patience is not one of our natural human characteristics. One of my favorite authors is Oswald Chambers. He speaks to me across time in his devotion book "My utmost for His Highest". March 11th quotes him, "If we lose the heavenly vision God has given us, we alone are responsible- not God. We lose the vision because of our own lack of spiritual growth." Habakuk 2:3 tells us "Though it tarries, wait for it". I think it rather amazing that Abraham continued to believe that he would have all those offspring, when he waited for years after the vision to even have a child. I think he probably had his gloomy days too, when he wondered if he had heard it quite right. I don't know for sure, but I think he probably did something similar to what I did this morning. I spent a little extra time at home, watching two squirrels do acrobatics up a tree, did some reading and meditating. I filled the bird feeder and listened to the songs that they shared with me. Becky and I each had a chocolate yesterday. My wrapper had the words "Buy yourself flowers" underneath the wrapper...I think I shall! .....The Sovereign Lord is my strength; He makes my feet like the feet of a deer, He enables me to go on the heights. Habakkuk 3:19

We have it everyday! All year long! Next time you join us for lunch why not make it Alamode!

Have you noticed our Display of P. Graham Dunn Décor in the Garden Room?

P. Graham Dunn is the fulfillment of a 30-year vision: to create wall decor, home furnishings and gifts that please the eye and inspire the heart. In 1972, newlyweds Peter and LeAnna Dunn accepted a mission from their church to open a home for runaway girls in New York City. In order to keep the girls occupied, they initiated a small woodworking business. The girls carved plaques and gifts that quickly became popular items at out door markets in Greenwich Village. When the mission in New York was complete, the couple bought the woodworking equipment and installed it on their farm in Dalton, Ohio. Dunn spent the next two years building silos for area farmers to support his family, while perfecting his designs and manufacturing techniques during every spare moment. Today P. Graham Dunn has grown into an outstanding company with over 3,500 accounts in the US and around the world.
